LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

Quite a number of our people motored over to Caruthersville Sunday to witness a ball game between that city and Cape Girardeau, in which the visiting team won from Caruthersville by a score of 1 to 0.

That New York magistrate who sentenced a man to take a bath must have had a revengeful feeling toward a perfectly innocent tub.

—It is never too early to care for your eyesight, but if neglected it may be too late. Better have your eyes examined now, if they trouble you any way. I can give them a careful, scientific examination, and fit proper lenses if same are needed. T. Ben Turnbaugh, optometrist, Caruthersville, Mo.

Mesdames J. W. McFarland and Tom Simpson of Caruthersville came over Sunday to spend a few hours with Mrs. J. H. Swain of Poplar Bluff and who is here visiting at the home of Mrs. M. Z. Elliston.

Claude Malone of Kansas City and J. H. Price of Cape Girardeau, men interested in the W. O. W., were in Hayti Tuesday night attending to business and visited at the home of Rev. J. S. Newsom.

I have returned from my Texas trip, and am ready to attend to optical patients again. T. Ben Turnbaugh, optometrist, Caruthersville.

Where's the idiot who coined the phrase, "eat, drink and be merry?" It's a hell of a combination in these days of sky prices, prohibition and universal exasperation.

Mrs. Guy Barbee returned Monday from Caruthersville where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Sam Spalding.

Homor Shaw of Caruthersville motored over to our city Tuesday bringing several of his friends with him.

Hang onto your penies yet a little while. They will make good sinkers when the fishing season is in its height.

Lee Woodruff of Bethany, Okla., came in Wednesday morning for a several days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Allen.

Let not the sweetness of your daisies tempt you, sister. It makes a good substitute for sugar we can't.

John C. V. of Harrison, Ark., was here a few days that week attending to business and visiting over to Ben and Mildred.

Miss Marcelle Smith was visiting at the home of Cape Girardeau country.

Bernard Hill, Gladstone, N. J., sells Rat-Snap. He says.

"I sell and use RAT-SNAP. Like to look any man in the face and tell it's the best. It's good." People like RAT-SNAP because it "does" kill rats. Perishes carcass—leaves no smell. Comes in cakes—no mixing to do. Cats or dogs won't touch it. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Leder's Drug Store and Kohn Hardware Co.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

State of Missouri, County of Pemiscot—ss.

In the Circuit Court, July term, 1920.

Amanda J. King, Plaintiff, vs.
Robert E. King, Defendant.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorneys, Mayes & Gosson, and files her petition and affidavit, alleging among other things, that defendant, Robert E. King, is not a resident of the State of Missouri, so that the ordinary process of law can not be served upon him within this state.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the Clerk in vacation that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court, the object and general nature of which is to dissolve the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of general indignities, and that unless the said Robert E. King be and appear at this Court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the Court House in the City of Caruthersville in said County, on the 29th day of July next, and, on or before the first day of said term, unless further time be granted by the Court, answer or demur to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law in the Hayti Herald, a newspaper published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next July term of this Court.

ERNEST A. LONG,
Circuit Clerk.

A True Copy From the Record.
Witness my hand, and seal of the Circuit Court of Pemiscot County, this 19th day of April, 1920.

ERNEST A. LONG,
Circuit Clerk.
